CREDIT OPPORTUNITY

Portland State University's Continuing Education, Graduate School of Education will offer one university credit for the full OACE Winter Conference.

Cost per credit: $55.00
(in addition to the registration fees.)

Payment for university credit will be made on-site
(January 21, 2010).

OACE works in close collaboration with the Oregon Department of Education staff to provide up-to-date and important professional development for educators and paraprofessionals as well as resources for parents.

ODE staff will be available throughout the conference to meet with you personally and discuss your questions.

Make OACE Annual Winter Conferences part of your Continuous Improvement Planning for meaningful staff development and parent involvement. You may use ESEA/NCLB Title program staff development and parent involvement funds when both:

1. Conference attendance, follow-up, and successful practices are woven together for improvement, and
2. The analyses of your data suggest a need for improving practices that serve diverse populations.
